“ I'm Stevie's cousin, Sarah. It's hard to believe that he is no longer here, but relieving to know that he is in a much better place. We will all see him again someday. My granny, Pauline Dickenson, had the most wonderful dream about Stevie, and it was that Stevie was sitting on her front porch, just as usual, and he was talking to her, and he said that he really wanted to go and see Papa up in heaven, and he said he was ready to go and meet him. Stevie was always a very loved member of the family, and he will be loved and missed by all who knew him, I can't really say how sorry I am for those who where extra close to him, but he is in the Lord's company now. He is not suffering, he is PRAISING God in Heaven!! I love all of you guys.....and God Bless You all. :)

Love,

Sarah Luisa Dickenson

“ I only met Steve a couple of times but he had such a beautiful personality that couldn't be forgotten. Very kind and happy. We will do our best to help your family through the grief they are feeling. You will be missed immensely

“ Although I didn't personally know Steve, he was the grandson of my sister, and as such, I knew him indirectly, but briefly, through my nephew, Steve Sr. I cannot know the grief his family is feeling, but I do know that he's in pretty good company now - maybe even singing while his grandpa accompanies him on his guitar. My sincere condolences to the entire immediate and extended families and you are all in my prayers!

“ There's no other way to say it.. life won't be the same without you. I love you cousin, forever. Its hard not to be sad.. but im looking back on some of the funniest moments.. from daring each other to rollerblade down granny and Papas driveway..to when the fish he caught hooked him along with it (I seen blood and bailed but I brought mom and Papa) He screamed like a girl haha ..it gives me something to smile about! I'll miss your stupid goofy stories and the way you could bring laughter out in anyone at any time. Ill miss you popping in. It's not supposed to be like this. I love you.. I can't bring myself to believe it. I'll miss you forever. Love Lace

“ My brother had a smile and laugh that made you love him being around. He wore every emotion on his face! He had a good heart. He loved his family. I will miss my opposite and other side of the coin. I love you Steve. I will see you again. In the meantime, I'll keep your memory alive for your daughter.
