“ *I know how little words written on a page can mean to you at such a time, but I still wanted to let you know that all of you are in my thoughts. Uncle Al held a special place in my heart. I miss the countless hours our families spent together during my youth growing up in Warren, Mi., then in later years I remember delightful hours together visiting here in California at my parents home. Uncle Al, Aunt Mary, Janice, Scott and Bobby would visit us during summers the memories are a bit faded, not gone. These memories I keep close to my heart, love of family~ Uncle Al is at peace and happy again I know this is true~
