“ I have warm memories of Anne from Aquinas College days. To me she seems especially grounded, smart, engaged in life and sure of herself, always relished the good times and eager to help when there was a need.

Pete and I renewed our friendship with Anne and John at our 40th class reunion and I appreciated visiting with her again when we women, from Regina Hall and Willowbrook days, gathered and celebrated turning 60!

Pete and I extend our deepest sympathies to Mary Carol and the entire family. Your mother's spirit and example remain with us forever.

*God love you all,
