

Annette Nardi

November 15, 2003

...

Tribute Wall

JF

“ I have never stopped thinking about you from the 1st time I met you in 1975 you and your friend Bev were on vacation we met at a friends house in bellflower calif. we went for a ride on my harley that night, we hungout til you went back to mich. you really surprised me two years later when I came home one evening and a strange car was in my drive way I seen the license plate and new it was you, I know things did not work out between us but I always thought about you, so I thought I woudid try to find you online and it saddend me to see that you had passed in 2003 and it is now 2021 nov. 19 you were such a beautiful woman inside and out I guess that is why I have never forgotten you. this may seem strange that I am posting this 18 years later. but you know me, I had to. I know you are walking with the Lord and I will soon be walking with the both of you, so keep an eye out for me you will be easy to find the most beautiful woman there how could I ever forget those eyes.see you soon girl.
with love John Ward

John Ward an old friend - November 19, 2021 at 04:20 AM

CR

So sweet

Crystal - October 06, 2025 at 10:01 PM