“ I met Annette in 1977. Her daughter Janette baby sat our boys, her son Fred became friends with my boys. Then when Annette and I met it just clicked, we had fun most of the time just sitting around or shopping. She baby sat as well, she loved the boys and they loved her back. We were close with each other's kids. If Annette was your friend, she was your friend. She was a good Mom took care of her kids. She also loved her Church. Memories to many to mention!! Annette will be truly missed ❤️
