“ It's sad to see another young soul gone, especially when they are a close friend to you. Austin always could make you smile no matter if you're in a good or bad mood, always there for you and just a genuine person. Words can't describe the pain to hear that he's gone. I knew him since 6th grade and became good friends since the 9th grade, he was really only the one friend/brother that I stayed in touch with after graduation. May you rest easy brother you will never be forgotten. I love you man.

“ We met our freshman year of high school. From day one we became so close, had countless sleepovers, long heartfelt talks about anything and everything. You had the biggest heart, never had a bad thing to say about anyone. Thank you for always being a shoulder to cry on, for listening and being there for me. My home was always open to you and you always brought so much joy and laughter into it. I will never forget our memories and I will forever cherish the friendship we had. Thinking of your family and friends during this time, we all love you. So much.
