“ As I reflect on my dear sisters life, many thoughts come to mind, too many to write down here. But some of the most vivid are these.

She was a woman who loved.

She loved her family through the most difficult of times. She carried many crosses in her life, but she carried them with great love.

She was one of the hardest working people I have ever known. She worked in a small factory but preformed her job with great love and devotion. I am very proud of who she was and always will be to me.

She was a woman of faith. We would have talks on our Lord Jesus, and her walk in the faith. We shared tears and prayers. She loved Jesus and was always seeking His will.

She knew my Nancy before I did, and if it weren't for Barbara, we may not have ever met. And just a minor correct in my dear wife's writing, I am not Barbara's sister, I am her brother. (Just a slip of the typing fingers on dear wife's message.)

I will miss my dear sister very much and will always remember the great person she was.

*Love you Barb,
Richard*

“ I knew Barbara before I knew Richard. We went to school together and worked at Brown's Dairy. She told me she had a brother named Richard and he would be perfect for you. I wanted nothing to do with a set up. Fast forward 3 years later, I met Richard at Chrysler. I always thought he looked like someone I knew but I couldn't figure out who he reminded me of until I saw his last name. I went up to him and asked if he was Barbara's sister. He said yes and the rest is history..... I guess she knew what she was talking about. I will miss you my friend and sister.
Rest in Peace, Nancy
