

Charles K. Deak

September 26, 1928 - September 3, 2016

Charles K., 87, of Warren passed away September 3, 2016 at his home. Born in Budapest, Hungary to the late Karoly Deak and Ida (Benes). Beloved husband of Jenny (Bocinski). Cherished father of Jim Deak and Tina (Dan) Kendzior. Proud and loving grandparent of Lauren Kendzior. Survived by his brother Gedeon Deak.

A chemist and metallurgist, Charles Deak ran Analytical Associates, a lab specializing in metal analyses, for thirty years; and then consulted, mostly as a forensic expert witness, for another seventeen years under the name C. K. Deak Technical Services. He was also known in the Detroit area for his magic performances. He was Merlin for over twenty years in the annual Wassail Feast held at the DIA. He has a cabinet full of awards for his art photography and was known by friends for his wine making, wood working and ability to fix anything.

I will always remember Chalie and his magical Wizard / Merlin character. Also I'll always remember his strong accent and how it always reminded me of Dracula from the vintage movies
