“ May memories be a source of comfort at this time. I have many memories of Chuck as we were lifelong neighbors. But most recently, and in the past year or so when I come home on my morning break from work he was always on the porch with a gentle smile, or a morning hello, and sometimes just a wave. I waved to him just a few days ago never knowing it was going to be the last time. Going to miss you... RIP. Love ya! Yvonne

“ Chuck, I've been knowing you since you were around 15 years old, coming around Peninsular Plating. You finally got old enough and I gave you a job. Not just one job, you did every job. From plating, hilo driving, truck driving and supervisor for the afternoon and midnight shift. You were always a person I could on and one of the hardest workers that ever worked there. As a worker and a dear friend you will surely be missed by me. We had a lot of fun and wonderful years together.

*Your very good friend,

“ Words cannot begin to express the sadness you are feeling right now, but I am praying for you all to get through this. Just remember that a person that departs from this earth never truly leaves, for they are still alive in our hearts and minds, through us, they live on. He lives in all of your hearts. ❤️

Chuck will be terribly missed. He was loved by all of us and he will be cherished in our memories forever. May God embrace you all in comfort during this difficult time.

Love you all so much.

Rest In Paradise Chuck!

“ My father in law had a heart of gold and treated everyone like family. From the first day I met him and my mother in law, Karen many years ago I felt like part of the family. He was a loving husband, proud father and grandfather. What I remember most about him is willingness to help others in need. Always there for family and close friends. He didn't think twice to lend a hand and help. I will miss hearing the wild stories of him in his younger days and all of the adventures him and his brothers went on. I will miss seeing him play with Brooke..on the trampoline even if he looked crazy he didn't care! He loved his little peanut Brooke❤️ dancing with her at her infamous concerts and telling us about his family when he was younger. He taught me a little bit about poker, the Bible, and a few life lessons that I won't forget:) so many laughs and memories of him. I was very grateful to call him my father in law for as many years as I did. Heaven has gained an angel and your memories will live on in our family dad. I promise you that Brooke will know all about her incredible Paw-Paw. May you rest in peace ❤️
