“ Chris was not only my cousin but also my best friend we talked about the past and future. We fought and made up. We had a great time with him. He made me laugh and gobbled me when I'd try to block it. I cannot believe you're gone, Chris. I will never forget you and I love you very dearly. Until we meet again rest in peace pundoe.

“ Christopher, I shared memories of you this morning with David. When we lived in New Baltimore and you would waddle into the bathroom while I took a bath in your diaper. I called you "Crittty" back then when you were a baby. I also remembered when you would say "THANK YOU FOR SHOPPING THE QUICKIE MART, PLEASE COME AGAIN" in your Arabic voice. You made me smile. You were always there to help fix my cars. Although we had our differences in opinions, I loved you. Hearing you had passed broke my heart. I hadn't cried like that in a long time. You are at rest now, hug your grandparents tight for me and tell Ralph I miss him. See you in Heaven. Love you. AUNT NANCY
