“ Our sincere condolences to David's wife Marg, son Randy and daughter- in-law Rachael. We were close friends for many years when Dave and Marg were holidaying in Nova Scotia and bought their summer home there. We cherish those memories. Unfortunately we have been unable to travel to the States to visit them for several years but have spoken on the phone until recently. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this sad time. Sincerely, Len and Helen Sweett

“ Marg, Rach and Randy would like to thank family and friends who have offered their kind words of comfort and spent time with us during this difficult time. We'd also like to thank the wonderful people at Arden Court who helped Dave in his hours of need and have been so kind to us all, especially Marg who remains in their care.
