“ Doug & I still are having a hard time believing you have gained your wings. I have taken time to reflect over the years and met the family was in 1982, and I became part of the crazy family in 1983 when I married your brother Doug and I can honestly say I have so many wonderful memories of you, Jr, & the entire family. All the crazy tricks that you & the family use to play on each other especially on Jr, o’boy especially on Jr and Debbie you come up with some real good ones to Deb. You welcomed me into the family like a sister. When D.j. was born he was your little peanut you said he was so tiny. When James was born you said he was a little slugger compared to Dj. I can honestly say this family has traveled a lot but most of all yes has done a lot of camping and when I say a lot I mean “A LOT” over the years just from me being in the I recall us all the entire family camping at Algonac State Park, Sutters Campground, and or Berwagana Campground. We also had a lot of family BBQ’s. Debbie you have truly left memorable impressions on the hearts of many. We love & miss you dearly, the memories of you will live on through our hearts forever.
