“ So many recent memories of you calling me throughout the night for whatever you needed or calling my cell phone to ask me to make it easy on myself and not cook just bring home take out. I would think yeah right, you just want junk food tonight. When i got home you wanted me to watch TV til midnight and most often I would. These small things are the things I miss now. Nobody told me that the things that I avoided most would be what I would later long for. I miss you. You mean so much to me. I loved our time together. See you later Ma

“ You are the coolest woman I've ever known...you could out shop anyone, have an in-depth conversation about any sport, news story or politician. You gave me my (semi) addiction to shopping, my thirst for knowledge, my love of news, my smile, my cheekbones, my heart. I was always so proud to call you my Gramma. I loved to hear stories about Evanston or about Granddaddy CarCar or how our family got the "Hill" name. You inspired me to research our family tree to know more and show you...I'm so glad I did. I loved reminiscing about when I was younger and you'd take me to the mall and we'd have brunch, shop and walk home and just talk. :-). I know you are somewhere better than this, but I wish we could have another talk about ANYTHING!

Just to hear you laugh before you finish the story would make it all worth it.

I love you Gramma.

“ How beautiful the smile is of Ms. Cargill! Psalms 90:10 describes a women of her age as having "special mightiness". May your hearts be filled with the wonderful promise recorded at Acts 24:15 and renewed by the comfort of Psalms 34:18.

“ To the Family.

I am sorry for the lost of your family member and dear friend. I have an encouraging message that I would like to share with you from God's Word the Bible.

Like many people we all want to live and enjoy life with the ones we have lost to this aged-old-enemy death. Sadly, though because of health issues, injustice, crimes and old age we have to suffer the pain when ones fall asleep in death.

In the Bible at John 5:28,29 Christ Jesus states that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. These ones according to Psalm 37:11 will be resurrected right here on the earth.

The Bible also gives us comfort and hope at Revelation 21:3-5 which assures us that the day is soon to come in which our Heavenly Father is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more.

I hope that after reading this that it will be of comfort to each of you.

“ To the family of Doris A. Cargill,

We would like to express our sincere condolences for your loss. At the time of Jesus' death, he confidently left his spirit (or life force) in the hands of his Father saying, "Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit". Then "he expired" (Luke 23:46). Jesus trusted fully in his Father's ability to bring him back to life. Three days later, He did! Mrs. Cargill's spirit has be entrusted into our Creator's hands, and in due time, she too will be brought back to life! (John 5:28, 29). May you find comfort in this promise of our Lord and Savior.

“ Last night, as I closed my eyes, I thought of my sweet Gramma next to her siblings, parents and her two daughters that she loved so much. I slept well. I find peace in that. I hope my family will too.

You made me who I am and I'm glad to have called you my Gramma.

*I love you.

“ Michelle ~

Gramma, you were my gramma, friend, mentor and shining star. No matter where we are, there will always be an eternal connection!!! Your smile is imprinted on my heart and when I think of you I remember so many special, simple, and buddy like moments! You use to make me feel so welcome in your home, in your space in time and I love you so much for that! God knows the heart of the matter and even though we've been apart for awhile... what we shared will never be forgotten! We laughed together, cried together, watched television together, broke bread together and shared loved ones together! It's amazing how God know exactly what to do, when to do and how to do things... so perfectly and divinely executed! I'm imagining you smiling, laughing, and already in your comfort zone with your loved ones! We will all miss your physical presence gramma but always have your spiritual presence... Thank God for "gramma" Doris Cargail... I love you and see you later on...

“ Just thinking bout you this morning Ms. Cargill. I was so happy to hear your voice each time I called. You were always so loving, so sweet. I have known you for 34 years from the time I met your daughter and I have always thought of you as my second Mom. I remember the many times that I would come over, we would talk or simply watch TV, one of your favorite things to do. Thank you for your thoughtfulness. Thank you for your love. I love you back.

“ If I had just one thing more to say to My Mother I would say

"You were my voice when I was weak. Always protecting me. Always on my side. I Thank God for the 53 years that we shared together. You gave me more than a Mothers love. You were my life partner, my second spouse. Thank you Mama...I love you"

“ To the Family,

85 years....

What a Blessing that God gave her over and above the 70 years promise.

What a Blessing that God knows when the time was right; to take your Mom to her eternity; to be with Him forever; as the scripture says, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

What a Blessing to know her life is not lost, but it was time for her to take that journey to a better life, a life that cannot be compared to this world in which we live.

Rest assured that your Mom is not only in the presence of Almighty God, but she is also in the presence of those loved ones that were so dear to her, that had gone on before her. Imagine the big smile on her face when she seen her daughters Kathy and Valerie; her mom; her dad; oh what a reunion that took place this day! To you that are left behind, she leaves her precious memories until she see you again.

I know you all will miss her terribly and when the days ahead come upon you; picture your Mom in Heaven walking, running, talking, laughing, smiling, giggling, not confine to a bed, but free of all the constraints of the life she lived here on this earth.

May God give to all of you peace and fill you with his love during this difficult time.

Love you all.
