“ Ed was a wonderful man. He was member of M. Calvary Lutheran Church for many years. He and Pat did so much for the church. Ed was always in the kitchen helping the ladies with funeral luncheons or fellowship. He was the biggest help with the food pantry, going to pick up food on Hall Road and bringing it back to church and stocking the tables or food closet. He also did repairs around the church. If we needed help with anything Ed was there to do it. We have missed him the couple of years, but now he is with Pat, the love of his life. Many thoughts and prayers go out to Evan and Russell and he rest of he family.
