“ My husband and I are deeply saddened by the loss of your loved one. We have both experienced death (in our family) and recognize how true the words of 1Corinthians 15:26 are when it says, "death is the enemy" but soon it will be no more. The Holy Bible assures us of the hope of seeing our loved ones again (John chapter 11). May the passages mentioned above bring your family as much comfort as it has brought ours.

“ Thanks for everything Ed! You were indeed always there to help others and that includes us! When the roof on our new home was basically screwed up you took a look at it and confirmed that the (excuse for!!) roofers horribly messed up the roofing job. You suggested an absolute top-notch engineering firm to inspect the roof and write a report so we could give it to our builder! Needless to say the people you suggested were nothing short of top-notch! Our builder and the roofing supplies supplier (they provided the "roofers" for our new home) folder in a New York Second when they saw the name and report from this engineering firm.

Rest in peace my friend.

Brother-in-law John A Tirone (and derivatively your sister Maargaret Ann!)

“ I will always have great memories of Ed and Dan coming to visit in Goderich. I remember hiking to Saltford over what we thought of then as THE BIG BRIDGE, to buy firecrackers. I also remember going to the farm and the boys treating me to a fun afternoon of shooting the guts out of bullfrogs. They really did think it was fun, me not so much! You were a good man Ed and will be missed by many.
