“ Where do I begin..I have so many memories of grandma. My first airplane trip was with her, trips up north, shopping trips, lunch at her favorite restaurants, Bill Knapps (especially for the chocolate cake) and Big Boys, swimming at her house, Christmas Eve, and many more. She shared memories of her childhood in Germany and in her last few years wrote it down in a book for all of us to have. Coming from Germany she still had that strong accent to this day so she pronounced my name as Viddy, which some of my husband's call me now. One things for sure she was surely stubborn and both my dad and husband would agree I most likely got that from her (my mom would've probably agreed on that too). I'm glad that Paige and Kenzie got to know their great-grandma, they may be young but if you show them a picture they know who it is. Love you grandma, you'll be missed even with those crazy urgent phone calls to all of us! RIP tell mom, grandpa, Aunt Senta, Aunt Elfriede, Uncle Gene and all other of our family members that we've all lost we love and miss them.
