“ We enjoyed many holidays and birthdays with Gail. She was always up beat and positive. Our grandchildren adored their granny. She will be missed, but we have joy in our hearts knowing that she is with our Lord and Savior.

“ To my dearest other Mom, Gail.
Fun memories of summer time sweet tea, warm cozy specialty knit socks, sewn clothing for Hannah with matching bandanna and outfit for Clarissa, awesome heating pad made with rice sewn together in love with the cutest material. Always wearing a sweet smile and the most coordinated outfits EVER! Thank you for being so loving to call me another daughter. Now, you've run the race and rest in Jesus and you are missed more than you know. Pray we can all run a race with such love and grace as you until we meet again on that Heavenly shore. Love you!!
