“ One of my favorite memories with Auntie Hilda was when we first got to meet her, after years of praying that she would be able to get her citizenship. The cousins and I wrote her a song and sang it for her at grandma and grandpa’s house. She was touched. I keep thinking of that memory over and over. We were all so excited to meet her and so happy that she was finally with us. Auntie Hilda was the most loving and servant-hearted woman I’ve ever met, and she was and always will be a huge blessing to our family. We miss you and love you dearly, Ate.
