Jan loved taking pictures of her flowers blooming in the springtime and spending quality time with friends and family, especially family dinners. Jan was the type of person that all who knew her, knew they could talk to her without fear of judgement. She was a second mom to all of her sons' friends. She was loved by all, and will be greatly missed. A memorial will be planned at a later date. Please visit www.rudyfuneral.com to share a memory or light a candle.

“ Where to start? I have enjoyed 50 years of a great friendship. When she married my brother it was just the beginning, and didn't end when the marriage did. There were many outings with our boys that created memories for us to laugh and cry about in years to come. Working together downtown made the work fly by. We would take our lunch to Belle Isle when the work load allowed and return to work with smiles. It was there she met Jeff Hinman and I was honored to share her joy when they married. Her broken heart when he died was tough to get through, but she never lost her light that and love that surrounded us all. The last trip we took together to Ludington and Manistee was delightful and full of laughs. I miss her so much.
