“ Dear Jeff, Riley & Family

You must know how deeply saddened I was over your loss. Your wife and I were the dearest friends and I dare say she was like a sister to me. All though we only new one another for a short time, I feel like she was always apart of my life, she left a lasting impact on my life. I will miss her very much.

I could always rely on her whenever I needed help, whether with a project or some mundane chore that she was always so willing to help me with. I came to trust her judgment and wisdom as well and her advice was always so well thought out and helpful.

She was a great woman and I know our lives will never be the same without her. I could never find a better and more caring friend.

She has left us with so many wonderful memories. I will cherish them forever.

In Deep Sorrow,

Katrina & Family

“ I will never forget when we met I thought you were off the hook lol but when we became friends I new it would be for a lifetime. Your ways of caring and giving and being a true friend were the best as a person could be. You didn't take any crap from anyone and had lots of fun doing it lol but in the end u always stood up and was proud and strong! No matter wut:). I will truly miss u but now u can fly free and watch over us cuz lord knows some of us still need a little;). I will hope u and Ryan are hangen tough and laughing ur a off! Love you Jen. I will miss u. See ya when I get there meanwhile I have u in my heart<3

“ Jennifer was my sister in-law, she was the most caring and giving person I've ever met. I've been with her at her best and her worst. But one thing that never waivered, was her love for her children, and her family. Jennifer had a very big heart, anyone who new her would tell you the same. She will be missed, I hope you find happiness, in your next journey. Love your brother, Butchie.
