“ For a short time during my divorce I lived with my brother Kevin and many times Jennifer would come over for barbq’s and we would talk. She was a listener and her smile was always genuine. I know Jennifer had struggles in her life but she came across as someone who didn't focus long on the negatives, she gave a positive energy when she was around. I was shocked to hear of her passing. My deepest sympathy to her family.

Honey I just found out about Jen. I literally had the same relationship with her. I mostly helped with the kids but I had no idea she passed away because we weren't getting along at the time. I am so sorry. I can remember you two being my little sisters you were just babies. I love you so much
