“ I have known Mrs Borkowicz since I was old enough to walk over and play with her daughter. My childhood is filled with memories of her beautiful flowers, hanging out the laundry, talking to the neighbors over the fence and of course "pardon my french". As I grew up I enjoyed our conversations and how she always remembered what was going on in my life. I enjoyed our mother daughter adventures we did with my mom and Christine. She was a special person and is truly missed! Love ya Joannie!
