“Dad not a day that goes by without you on my mind. I am more than amazed at the man that you were. The person who i become and was is because I was your daughter and you were my best friend. My heart hurts so bad dad because I never wanted to face the world with out you. I can never put into words the loss I feel . This big hurt dad will always be there because the my world will never be the same. So as our hearts are shattered by the loss of you . We will be strong like bull because you would want us to be . Until we are together again I will try to make you proud but know I will fail from time to time . But I will always try and know you won't want me to give up. Rest in peace dad . I love you and miss you more
