“ Papa Jack you will be missed more than you will ever know. You were such a loving caring person, always checking in on everyone else to see how they were doing. Family events won't be the same without you. Words can't explain how greatly you will be missed by everyone especially the Lilley's. May you no longer be in pain and Rest In Peace ❤️

My thoughts and prayers are with your family

“ I remember when Uncle Jack would come to Florida to visit his parents every year. He would always take us for a ride in his red Cadillac convertible and we would always stop to get ice cream!
