

Kandis Lynn Lennon

April 28, 1984 - December 11, 2014

Kandis Lynn Lennon (nee Huff) died suddenly on December 11, 2014 . She was born in Royal Oak, Michigan to Kimberly Keyes and the late James Huff. Kandis was a Homemaker and Veteran. It is with great sadness that she leaves behind her husband Eric, and their three young daughters, Krista, Khloe, and Kayla. She also leaves behind her grandparents Carol and Ray Karpinski , brother Justin and sister Cindy, aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. Memorial service for Kandis Lennon is scheduled for this Friday, December 19th at The Shores Church 24905 Manhattan St. St Clair Shores, Mi 48080. Visitation from 3P - 7P, with a prayer tribute 7P - 8P. We ask that you stay to visit immediately afterwards for a fellowship reception in the foyer. In Lieu of Flowers, Donations to the Lennon family are appreciated.

“ *kandis,
Ever since you were a little girl. The day you were born and made your presences known on this earth. We knew you were always special, loving, and talented plus STRONG WILLED. Your purpose was to always help others. You left your mark on this world and made life better for alot of people. But our hearts are broken and so empty without you, because we miss you so very much, Froggy. Till we meet again love always, grandpa and grandma*

“ It is a rare occasion when someone crosses our path in life and in a matter of moments has such an impact that is both deep and meaningful that such a meeting is both a gift and a blessing. I knew her but a moment in time, but having met her will last a lifetime. Your struggles and pain are over, may you rest in everlasting peace til we meet again.

“ To my sister, Kandis - May you always be in my heart and within my memories and by my side. I will dearly miss you, but know that you are always with me. Just as when we were kids, we were inseparable; so may our souls be connected forever. I love you. I know that you're in peace with yourself now and your children will always be in my life. I will always be there for them as you were there for me when I was a child. Love, your brother Justin.

“ I am saddened for the loss of my young friend. I will miss her loving bright smile & childish giggle. Last summer we camped with the girls at Lakeport for a night. The van was packed mostly with things for the kids to enjoy. It was a circus of sorts but a needed adventure. Although our friendship was brief she will be in my heart always. My deepest condolences to her loved ones,
