Larry was a great son-in-law. I will miss his smile when he says “How ya doin Granny? What’s up? Love ya!” He was a great person to have as a friend. Love you always, Granny*

“ Oh, Larry. Still trying to process how all of this can be real. We had so much left to do together. Who's going to burn a few racks of ribs over a campfire and blame it completely on the wind? The weather is getting nicer, we have so much "recess" to attend in the backyard. I've known you now for almost 11 years and although you really knew how to push my buttons, you were still one of my favorite people. I could always count on you coming over to see the kids everyday. Man, they sure are going to miss you. I'm going to miss you. We promise to continue asking everyone if they're "engaged yet" until they answer yes. Hopefully you get to hang out with dad, enjoy your parents again. Until we meet again kid.

Love you SO much

“ I knew Larry through his son Mike. We were just a bunch of kids back then and we always went to Mike's basement on half days and weekends. Larry was always in a good mood and always ready to engage in a conversation. Very good people. He accepted Everyone for who they were. By keep the memories alive in our minds and hearts may he live forever through us. Rest in Paradise.

“ Larry was more than just our neighbor, more like family. Such an awesome man with a good sense of humor. It's going to feel so unnatural not seeing him sitting in his chair in the garage. Gone from our sight, but never from our hearts. Larry will truly be missed.
