“ Everyone that knew Aunt Lilly loved her, and her zest of life! She lived her life to the fullest even into her nineties, she was always ready to go and do something, especially if the word "Casino" came up.

She was the Camp Counselor on Dale Street, whoever had a problem would come and sit on her front porch and talk to her, including me. Most time at the end of our conversations she would look at me and say "Marcia, I dunno", but you felt better just talking to her.

Her presence will be missed at all future Family Gatherings but her Memory will live forever in all our hearts!

Rest in Peace Aunt Lilly and enjoy your Eternal Place in Heaven, you deserve it!

*Love,
Marcia Grifka*

“ Lillian will be missed dearly. Dale St won't be the same. All the long conversations with her on the front porch. I'll never forget her sweet voice saying "Hello there Erika" and her calling my son Erik her boyfriend lol I will miss her and don't even want to think of her not being right next door. My heart hurts for the whole family. Love you all, Erika
