“ Loretta was a kind woman who loved her family above all else. I have known her for the last 3 years as a wonderful story teller of times past of love given and received for family and friends. Over the Las era she has wanted to be with those she misses. Now she is there may, she be happy and rest in peace may all those that she left here think of her with love and a smile on their face . I loved her and watched over the best I could.
