“ Although you were my brother-in-law for such a short time you were a huge comfort when my husband died in July 1974. Leonard thought a great deal of you and loved the happy times at the Eagles. Rest in peace, Louie.....

“ There are so many fond memories I have of my Uncle Louie. The Eagles, softball games, babysitting for Matthew, Michael and LouAnn, and coming to the bowling alley to watch everyone bowl. We were so blessed to have you in our lives and you will be greatly missed.

One of the funniest recent memories is when Uncle Louie didn't recognize me and thought I was hitting on him. My how we laughed!!!! What a wonderful man, husband and father. Until we meet again!!! Love you.
