“ I met Lynn in 2006 when I started working at Biopelle. Lynn worked for Biopelle on temporary projects in our warehouse until she became ill last year. Whenever I saw Lynn she always made me laugh. She adored her girls, husband and grandchildren so much. They were her pride and joy! We shared so much laughter and tears throughout the years. About 2 years ago Lynn/Jessie and I decided to go our for drinks after work at Rosie's O'Grady in Royal Oak (ooh what fun we had)...we kept the party going walking up 9 mile laughing historically at what I dont even know and found our way to Dino's Restaurant on Woodward for more drinks and laughs, one of the best times of my life. We often spoke about getting together again, but life and family got in the way of our next girls nite. Guess I'll have to party with Jessie now :-) My dear friend will truly be missed.
Love and miss you Lynn - Jenell

“ You were my friend, neighbor, second mom to my boys, co worker, and one of the toughest, strongest women I have ever known. We didn't visit, we didn't talk on the phone, but I ALWAYS knew I was in your thoughts as you were always in mine and always in my prayers. I will miss you, but I am also grateful to God for taking you home where you will forever be free of pain and sickness. Rest peacefully my friend.

“ One of my earliest memories I was 6 or 7 years old playing baseball in my yard. I hit the ball and broke her kitchen window. She beat me senseless. lol. She was my second mom. If I did something wrong as a kid and she caught me she would whip my butt! Wait until my mom came home and have her whip my butt! She will be missed.

“ Lynn has been my neighbor for 12 years. She wasn't your typical neighbor that you just wave to or ask to borrow a cup of sugar from here and there. She was the kind of neighbor you told jokes with over the fence. Then made your way into her yard and checked out her beautiful flowers with. The kind of neighbor you stayed up late with at a bonfire sharing jokes and having drinks. I live in the lame ol city of warren. Summers were everything but that living next door to such a wonderful person with such a wonderful family. When you have that kind of neighbor... your family becomes theirs....and theirs becomes yours. Bridgett is the first friend I made when I moved to Warren at 12 years old. I grew up and spent all my life in Fraser. I was terrified when I came here until this loving family accepted me. Lynn and Roger always asked about art class, knowing it was my favorite and always asked to see the latest drawing or painting. They took an interest in me as if I was one of their own. I can never truly express in words how wonderful Lynn was but this is my way of trying. She was such a special neighbor and mom and grandmother. Such a tight knit family, you don't see that much these days . .so when you do. .... you know its special. Lynn, may you rest in peace and I hope your up there with a cold beer in hand in a garden of flowers because I know you would love that. We will meet again and I hope to have you as my neighbor in the afterlife because after all it was such a pleasure the first time.
