“ I only had the chance to know Marcella through her family, but that's enough to know that she was an optimistic and generous woman. The world is a little brighter for having shared her for this long.

“ Marcella was truly a gem and is now with Dad who she took such beautiful care of and with Gods angels! How many times the past two days that I think I will call her as we talked almost every day My heart aches. I am so grateful to my daughter Michelle Shartran and my sister Shirley Chesney for taking care of her and being with her at the end. May you rest in peace Marcella . With love, Carole & George
