“ Maria and my mother Anna were close friends. Maria was a very kind and warm-hearted friend to our family. I would sometimes visit her with my dad, Iwan Szamraj. Her home was always tidy and was decorated with her gorgeous, expertly embroidered pillows and handiwork. She always offered us some tasty Ukrainian food and her and my dad would talk about life and about teachings in The Bible that offered guidance and wisdom.

We will always remember her kindness, her warmth, and her loving spirit.

“ Baba Maria - a kind and generous lady with a big heart. Always happy to see all that came knocking at her door and greeted everyone with a big hug and smile. Loved her family dearly as well as extended family. Rest in peace and smile upon us, knowing that you have been loved by all of us. I miss your varenicki - they were the best!
