“ My Mom was quite a pistol....she always held her own. I loved her dearly even though sometimes I could wring her neck. I just feel lost....another hole in my heart I will miss her and am glad I spent the time with her I did. She was also one of the pickiest people I knew. Mom you were never huggy kissy but I knew you loved me! Francie;)

“ Some of my fondest memories as a teenager are of Mrs. Bahleda. I spent a lot of time in her home. Her son Paul and his wife are among my oldest and dearest friends. She always had a pitcher of ice tea with sweet-n- low. I still drink it that way to this day. R.I.P., until we meet again. My deepest heartfelt sympathy to the Bahleda family.....Much love, Rvonne.
