“ My aunt Mary was truly a remarkable woman and shall be missed by all who were fortunate enough to have known her! No other woman can even come close to all the compassion, love, and unselfish nature she possessed.

She is finally back home with her soul mate my uncle Leo. Another amazing person.

I shall miss our talks, memories we shared together and being able to say..."How you doing my beautiful mama." I shall also miss hearing her laughter and all her wisdom she gave to me. I always thought of her as an angel on earth and now she is an angel in heaven. Aunt Mary you will always live on in my heart and mind. You are finally home with Jesus and in a much better place. I love you!

Your niece, Denise.

“ About three or four years ago Sandy & I were having dinner with Mary, Andy & Cindy and I was describing some concerns I had with the cottage we had purchased. Mary didn't say anything until after I had finished and she simply said... "Well then why did you buy the place"? Needless to say she really put that issue to bed with one simple comment.... I had NOTHING to say after that, it really put things into perspective and is something I will never forget.

Also I remember when I was a boy and my family was visited Leo and Mary's home on the East side the part of town I considered the other side of the earth as everything there seemed to be sooo different than the West side of Detroit. Every time we visited I thought Mary kept the cleanest home on earth.... and I have never seen another place as kept up. maybe with the exception of a hospital.

And finally my brother Jim told me a story where Leo and Mary were visiting Niilo and Laila in 1969. My dad was reading some of the letters I sent home from Vietnam where I used some pretty basic and crude language to describe my situation. I know Leo fully understood what I was experiencing as he was in the Army in WWII, however, Mary didn't expect or appreciate my language choices. (PS sorry Mary I didn't know you would read these letters)

“ Andy,

Mary was such a wonderful woman, . . . unfortunately, I only had the opportunity to meet your Mom after she moved up north to be my “new neighbor”.

I always enjoyed talking with her and listening to her tell me stories about the Saarm Family life with your Dad and her children, and the home that she loved downstate.

I used to enjoy stopping by to visit with Mary, and sit at her kitchen table just having our enjoyable chats, ... she was a lovely lady.

The 90th birthday celebration for your Mother back in 2010, spoke volumes about what a loved woman she was. What a great turnout of family members and friends from all over, to honor her on that occasion. Mary sure made a lifetime of friends on this earth.

Mary was such an inspiration to everyone that knew her, . . . always so strong and independent in her long life after Leo’s passing.

She was a remarkable woman, and I was proud to know her.

*Your friend and neighbor,
Greg*

She WAS classy, wasn't she?! Even at the end of a dirt road, she always wanted to look nice. (You never know who might come by on an off-road golf cart!) How wonderful for both Sandy and Grandma to have had the time to become acquainted. She spoke nice words about Sandy and enjoyed her company. Thank you, Ray, you truly have been a great friend to my Dad and family. We are all blessed.

*I always said I was blessed to have such wonderful parents. The love and affection they showed not only to us,, but to everyone that ever walked through the door. They both did so much for so many folks and never talked about it..It was done quietly and with good in their hearts! I had two GREAT parents and I am very proud of them both. I know in my heart they are together again. Today they are smiling down on all the kind words from you all and I Thank you all very much for this tribute to My parents!
God bless you all

Andy & Cindy -- We are so sorry to hear about your Mom's passing. We only met her that once at her 90th Birthday party where she was really enjoying herself. We spoke with her for a while -- she definitely loved to talk, even to strangers. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time

To the Saarm family: What a great person Mary was. "Classy" is the best way to define her. And what a lineage she and Leo created. She set high standards for all of you, and you have all done your part to live up to those. We see it. What a tribute to her. She lives in our memories now. She is not far away. God bless you all.
