“ I knew him as “Julie’s Dad”; I remember first meeting him many years ago and thinking whoa....because he was a pretty imposing looking guy. But I quickly discovered there was a kind, quiet man on the inside. It was always so obvious how proud he was of his children and grandchildren; it’s right there in any pictures you see of him with his family, he’s literally beaming! And that’s the way I will remember him. I’m so sorry for your loss, I’ll be keeping you all close in heart.
