“ I was thinking about Mike the past few years. I used to live across the street from Mike as a young boy. I lived on 14 mile in Clawson. I met him because I knocked on his door one day and asked him if he needed his lawn cut. That became a good friendship. He took me fishing on a few tournaments. Caught a lot of fish. We would launch from Grindstone, MI. I have always had a regret. When I was a teen, I distanced from him and I wish I was better to him in the end. You were a great man and were great to me when I was young and my Dad was not around. You touched my life as a young man and I hold those memories still. For that I think I am a better person today and appreciate our Great Lakes.
