

Patricia Lynn Haver

February 1, 1957 - December 25, 2025

Patricia Haver (68) of Clinton Township, December 25th, 2025. Beloved wife of Jack Haver and mother of Jessica (Scottie) Evans, Jacob Quayhackx, stepmother of Steve (Tracy) Haver and Craig (Heather) Haver. Dear daughter of George Hobig and the late Mary Hobig. Also survived by her grandchildren Tobie and Parker Evans, Owen and Jared Haver, Tabatha (Ted) Ames, Derek Haver, and Brad Haver, her siblings Steve (Becky) Hobig, Ken (Sue) Hobig, Rick Hobig, Jean (Bob) Bell, and Mike Hobig as well as her many loving nieces and nephews as well as close friends.

Patti was both incredibly loving and incredibly loved, building a strong and caring community over her lifetime, ensuring she always had a village around her and her children. A devoted wife and mother, Patti was also the anchor of many family traditions and will be remembered with every cookie baked, every coffee cake topped with apples, and every lasagna enjoyed. Her traditions will live on as she made sure to instill the joy and care of them into her siblings, kids, and nieces and nephews so we can feel her warmth and love every Christmas.

Patti loved her family and friends more than anything and always looked for opportunities to connect, whether it was opening up her pool for the summer, planning a family get together, or staying connected with friends she's had for decades, she was always ready to share her enthusiasm and ensure everyone had a great time. Her greatest joys were in watching her children succeed and her grandsons grow into wonderful young men. She will be remembered for how fiercely she loved her kids and grandkids, her lifelong advocacy for those with special needs, and the care and kindness she showed to everyone she met. A memorial mass will be held on Friday, January 2, 2026 at St Joan of Arc Catholic Church 21620 Greater Mack Ave., St Clair Shores, Michigan 48080. Memorial visitation begins at 11:30 AM followed by Mass at 12 Noon. In lieu of flowers, Memorials to Dutton Farms, Families Exploring Down Syndrome or the Special Olympics are appreciated. “ Patti was my guardian angel, she had the best timing. When I need someone special to talk to, without me either contacting her, she was knocking on my door. She has helped me get thru some very rough times. She was truly a sister to me. She had the biggest heart. She is truly going to be missed! Heaven got another angel, can't wait to see what she is going to do when she gets her wings (if she doesn't already have them).
