“ To the Aunt I called my second Mom because she has been there after the loss of my dear Mom. She showered me with chats on the phone, visits at her condo sharing anything in food and drink she had in her kitchen. I was always taking biscotti home by the dozen. The many crafts she made for me and generous birthday and Christmas gifts I received from the lady with a heart of gold.

Aunt Pauline is now showering family and friends in heaven with her hugs, love and crafts forever.

Mike, Bob, Chris and George you were blessed with kind-hearted parents and their love and generosity lives on in you and your families. May you find peace as you carry on their legacy.

Love Always, Carol "Ann"

“ Well, there's another Angel in Heaven...but watch out for that Ukie party with all of the "Original Sirko's" now that Aunt Pauline is there! Many blessings and prayers for my cousins (Mickey, Bobby, Chrissy and George) and their families. May you find strength in your memories! Someone so special can never be forgotten...Love, Mary and Doug

“ Will miss everything about you Aunt Pauline! Will never forget when you dressed up as a clown for Halloween and came to entertain the patients at Children’s Hospital when I worked there! You have been the heart of the family for all of us! If there was a phone in Heaven, I’d continue our regular phone calls! Love you bunches! 💕🙏💕
