“ To the LILLEY Family as we go through life as kids we don't have a care we turn into teens & young adults and anything little is a big deal as we turn into adults and marry the ones person who grabs your heart and holds on for life and never do we or ever want to think of the day we have to say goodbye we always hold on tightly that they will be with us forever and when that day comes it's hard to breathe your heart is broken in away that can't be fixed I know this is how you are all feeling know and if I had the key to help ease this and say things will be okay I would without a doubt do it. Always remember the man Phil was such a family man April Amber & Lauren you were his life . Phil was always willing to help someone out be it with their car just a ride or a hand with the pool. So as the next few days weeks and months come and go please know I am here for you all to talk cry get angry with . Always keep Phil close to your heart ever forget all the memories good as well as bad because alll of these made Phil the man he was and know he will forever be around you looking down and guiding you through times ahead . Rest In Peace Phil gone but never forgotten ❤️ The Elle Family
