

Ralph Anthony Marson

October 29, 1927 - December 23, 2021

Ralph Marson, age 94, of Center Line, died on December 23, 2021. He was born in Detroit to the late John and Emma Marsinko. Beloved husband of Geraldine for 60 years. Loving father of Laurene (Don) Hillebrand, Sharon (Fred) Woodward, and Michael (Nancy) Marson. Dear grandfather of Erick (Laura) Hillebrand, Sarah (Mike) Snyder, Emily (Andy) Fredrickson, Rachel (Steve) Gioja, Scout Marson, Kurt Hillebrand, Stephen Marson, John Hillebrand, Charles Marson, Fred Woodward, A.J. Marson, and great-grandfather of Becky Hillebrand, Heidi Hillebrand, Elizabeth Frederickson, and James Frederickson. Predeceased by siblings William Marson, Rosemary Marson, and Raymond Marson. Ralph retired in 1987 as a mathematician at the Warren Tank Arsenal after 25 years. A proud World War II Army Veteran, he was a very loyal, committed father and husband. A history buff who loved to read and research old maps and railroads, Ralph was also a prolific reader, collector, and writer who would often write letters to the editor about causes he believed in. Very strong in his Catholic faith, he was active in the pro-life movement and was a member and strong supporter of the Right to Life of Michigan. Ralph was a member of St. Clement Parish for 57 years. “ For years I would see Ralph in church. He always had a warm smile and a handshake from where he sat near the front pews. I always said a silent prayer for Ralph and his health. It wasn't until later that I had the pleasure of meeting his wife, Gerry in a prayer group, that I discovered that Ralph was her husband. After awhile Ralph stopped coming to church. I worried about him, but continued to pray for the man who warmed my heart. May you rest in peace Ralph. Gerry, I now lift you in prayer that God will help you in your time of sorrow. May God bless you both.
