“ It has been my pleasure to have Rick as a golf pal. The first in our group to usually commit and say he was in when a tee time was made. Hit em straight my friend and know that you will be missed but not forgotten.

“ I was introduced to the Lieckfelt family in 1985 when I met my wife, Pam. Pam had previously been married to Bobby, Rick's younger brother, who passed away at a young age. Pam is very close to the entire Lieckfelt family, and I felt fortunate to be warmly welcomed by them all. In a short time, I became part of this big, loving, and vibrant family. I love Rico like a brother, just as he treated me. Rico was such a cool guy, and I had a lot of fun knowing him. It breaks my heart to see him gone, but I take comfort in knowing he's in heaven saying, "Come on, everyone, let's get this party started!" Praying for Nancy and Eric at this most difficult time. Love Dan
