“ Rest In Peace Bob, you will be terribly missed. I will miss all the advice on how to care for my lawn. I will miss the conversation about the neighborhood...good and bad. You were always there keeping an eye on things. Tell Karen I said hello.

“ Uncle Bob.....whenever we were together you always were so funny and kind. You always made me feel welcome in your home. You always found joy in spending time with family. Even when you got mad you still made me laugh, because you could not stay mad for very long. You seem to find the humor in all situations. Until we meet again Rest in Peace. Love you!

“ Mr. Gill, Frank and I will miss the way you worked magic on our broken lawnmower or our sluggish snowblower in your garage. We will miss all the laughs in your driveway on our daily drive by's . I personally will miss your wave to me every morning at 6:30am when I turned the corner to go to work. When the waves stopped I knew something was wrong but I never thought it would come to this. Rest In Peace my friend and neighbor and say hello to Karen for us. Patty and Frank Scott
