“ Anyone that knew Rodger knew he loved convertibles. I had the privilege of knowing Rodger as a teenager and in our early twenties. He loved Elvis. He would pick me up from school in his convertible and we would ride around for hours with the top down. Rodger will always have a piece of my heart. Fly high Rodger!

“ We shared almost 13 yrs of our young life together. We went thru the rocker n hippie phases of leathers n ponchos. We were blessed w/3 loving children: Rodger,Dale & Krystal & 6 awesome grandchildren. We liked fishing @ Belle Isle w/our kids n taking them out trick or treating. Plus we had fun testing out our sons race car tracks Santa bought them 😊 We enjoyed being on the baseball & pool leagues for yrs. We had our ups n downs. I'll remember all our happy times shared. We went our separate ways and I'm very thankful we were able to reconnect while we had the chance to. Because of our daughter that was possible. God works in mysterious ways. Rest in Peace now Rodger w/your dear parents & brothers. My love is with you all in heaven & our loving family here, your all in my prayers. So sorry for your loss. Peace be with you all.

Krystal Dresden

That was beautiful Mom, ty for sharing these memories. I remember going fishing at Belle Isle and I didn't have a fishing pole so Dad made me one outta a stick and I was the only one who caught any fish that day lol 😊 And I also remember going to the baseball games at Jane's Field. So ty again for reminding me of these memories. I love you to the heavens 🌈 n all that jazz 💕 xoxoxo 💋 Muah 💕

“ Yes recall he prized his all white convertible car in early 70's. Plus spend hrs on end putting model cars together of the tedious parts imaginable.

Donna Hetzel - March 13, 2018 at 01:10 PM

Yes he did Aunt Donna, he loved, enjoyed and cherished building his model cars and took such pride in them and down to the smallest details and with his own special touches made them one of a kind and so unique!!!
