“ Sandra Lorraine Huffman was an incredibly talented artist who touched the world with the beauty of her art pieces and the comfort of her beauty salon artistry. She was a loyal friend to all and deeply cared for her friends and family, touching the hearts of many. Although I have only known her for seven plus years, she always made me feel welcome as a client in her beauty salon. Her warm presence, genuine kindness, and artistic talent left a lasting impression on everyone who had the privilege of knowing her. She will be truly missed, and her legacy will live on through the beautiful memories and the impact she had on our lives.
