“ I knew Stella through my best friend Christine. Stella was a lot of fun. When I think of Stella, I think of champagne. I teased her that her long life and mental alertness was due to her moderate drinking of champagne. A few years ago I sent her an article I read stating that "champagne was good for the brain." She always made me feel welcome at her cottage. Truly, God blessed her with a long life, one that was filled with both sorrow and joy. I pray for all those who loved Stella, and have shared in her sorrows. She is in God's hands, what better place could she be?

“ Stella was my mom's first cousin. They were very close when we were growing up. We spent a lot of time visiting Stella's family. We kids would play and the moms would gab. I remember that Stella liked to laugh. She was a vibrant person who lived to a ripe old age. I will always remember her with great fondness.
