“ Hey Steveo, I'll really miss your presence in my life. The dinners Judy and I had with you along with all the good laughs and smiles. The racing our cars on Woodward. Those will be good memories to keep forever. I know life was a struggle for you as it was for Judy, but it gives me great solace to know you both are together in Gods hands now and no longer suffering. Peace be with you brother. You are missed.

“ My Love and Prayers are with the family. He was a good man and I have many good memories of Steve! I remember what a wonderful dad he was when his children were little.

I use to babysit and the kids were always so happy to see him when he came home from work.

I'm praying that his life will leave a legacy of good memories to his family and friends left behind 🙏

He loved, laughed and enjoyed life! He may have had ups and downs, yet always came back stronger. May God's hand be upon the family tonight, as they gather together to celebrate his life here on earth!
