I didn't know your daughter but am a former long time Warren resident who's moved long distance. I check the obits so I can make sure I haven't lost a loved one unknowingly although I lost a brother in law in Warren very young two mos ago. I was very touched by your situation as a whole & wanted to send support & to let you know how very sorry I am for you & your family. I will be praying for u all! Remember, your baby IS with God & forever safe. XOXO

“ My dear friend Char, You are in my thoughts and prayers each day. Please know that you have an amazing daughter and remember her through your memories with her! I am here for you, whatever you need! Remember God needed a beautiful Angel and that was Tiffany. She is now your Angel and she will watch over you every day. My heart is breaking for you! Love, Stacy

“ They say "There is no greater pain then the loss of a child", with that said I have no magic words to make the emptiness go away its just going to take time. I completely understand and empathize with what your going though. Your going to cry alot and that's OK. You'll get though this, because that's what tif would want for you. Let family and friends help you get though this, because that's what we want for you. Let's just take this one day a time. Hugs and kisses. Tina

“ There are no magic words I can say to make the pain go away, that emptiness you feel in your heart. Just know, I completely understand and empathize with what your going through. Even Though she is not here to hold your hand and tell you everything is going to be alright, she would still want you to go on with out her. which i know seems like an impossible task right now, and believe me It will be difficult at first. But that's what family and friends are there for. we will help you get through this one day at a time. I'm always here for you. hugs and kisses. Tina.

“ Tiffany was a beautiful person inside and out. Tiffany and I grew up like sisters. When we were younger we used to love to go to the airport and watch the planes land with our dads. We also used to love to sing n dance to country music in my bedroom and pretend we were putting on live garth brooks and shania twain concerts! Tiffany always sang better than me lol when I got my karaoke machine we used to make my mom video tape our performances lol tiffany I hope your resting peacefully with your dad now. You will always be in my heart. Love you tiff.
