“ You will be missed dearly Grandpa. I'll always remember running around in your front yard as a child, having Easter at your place, and most of all, being able to play Euchre with you. You always kept us on our toes with your slick way of gaining points or trying to take a trick that wasn't yours; and when you got caught - your eyes always got that wide eyed innocent look, and then that silly grin always came over your face. I love and miss you Grandpa, but at least now you are reunited with Grandpa. She's been waiting a very long time for you.

Love,
Laura
