

Wayne Frank Testasecca

December 21, 1953 - June 23, 2021

Wayne Testasecca, age 67, of Warren, died suddenly on June 23, 2021. Beloved husband of Karen for almost 43 years. Loving father of Sandy (Tim) Piper and Robin Testasecca. Dear brother of Ric (Cindy) Testasecca, Marty (Lory) Testasecca, John (Kim StAmour) Testasecca. Uncle of Stacey, Josh, and Enzo Testasecca. Predeceased by his parents Frank and Marie Testasecca. Wayne was affectionately known to his many friends and family as "The Drain", "Wayne-O", "Jelly", or "Dada". He graduated from Cody High School and attended Schoolcraft Community College Culinary school and became a chef. Wayne retired from the City of Warren DPW Dept. He loved camping, travelling, cooking, and eating. He also enjoyed a good game of bocce ball, riding around in his golf cart, sitting around the campfire enjoying a good cigar, and working on "projects". One thing people remember most about him is that he was always giving of his time. He especially enjoyed helping others when he could. His final heroic act was still giving to others through The Gift of Life. Visitation will be held at Rudy Funeral Home, 25650 Van Dyke, in Center Line, on Monday June 28, 2021 from 1pm to the 7pm time of Masonic Service. Memorials to a charity of your choice in his honor appreciated. Please visit www.rudyfuneral.com to share a memory or light a candle.

“ All my sympathy and deepest condolences go out to the Testasecca family. I met Wayne at the Warren DPW where we both worked. He was a very kind, upbeat ,happy person with an infectious laugh that lifted everyone's spirits. I will always remember his keen sense of humor and good and humane nature. He will be missed by many beyond his family.

“ My deepest sympathies to the family & friends of Wayne. Wayne was a school buddy of mine. Met him when we were chosen to participate in a district Detroit Public School choir, both of us from different elementary schools at the time, but he took me under his wing and saw me through my uncertainties. We met back up when we attended the same Junior and High school. We never associated outside of school, but he was a great guy who I always considered one of my best school friends We both had "milkman" dads and Wayne got me interested in culinary arts. I'm sure he was still the outgoing, caring guy I remembered, was hoping to see him again next year if 1972 Cody graduates have a reunion, guess that reunion will have to wait for heaven. Again, my sympathies to all that knew Wayne. Keith Steinke

“ Dear Wayne,

We meet you almost 8 years ago when we moved into Holiday Shores. You were one of the first people to stop by and welcome us to the community. When you introduced yourself along with Karen, I knew that we met special people. Over the years we have become friends. We discovered we have a lot in common. We grew up in the same neighborhood, love to cook, love to eat, love to share stories, drink beer, tease all our friends and laugh about it. You were always willing to help people out. You always had a beer ready for all visitors. You often apologized for not having time to stop and chat when you were on your golf cart heading to help another friend or even a stranger, but you always took the time to wave and smile! I won't say goodbye to you, I will just say "till we meet again" please have 1 cold beer ready when we meet again!

God Bless you soul

“ OMG, where to start, Being a Mason and a Shriner opened the door to meet and get to Love some of the Kind, giving and caring people in our world. Wayne gave all in need the love and caring that only a Man with his Character could give. A loving and tight family man. That smile says it all. You my loving friend will be missed. I know you have your wings. Well done, my good and faithful Brother!. W.B Don Seales

“ We are so sorry we could not physically attend this precious, life honoring service for Wayne. But our hearts carry your brokenness from bended knee to the Lord who now holds Wayne in His Heavenly peace.

We have experienced this families undeniable love, treasured, memorable times and Wayne's strong bond with his dear friends. Such a legacy this kind, loving man has put into place, and he leaves behind his adoration for you Karen, love as bright as the stars and as deep as the sea.

To each of this family we breathe a prayer of sweet healing & hope, to his closest friends we weep with you, and to Wayne, we say "You are now an Angel Among Us Wayne, we'll be seeing you on those Shores". Randy & Susan “ Wayne was one of my best friends. I fondly remember him asking me to be Sandy’s Godfather. Of course he warned me, “ Michael, once you’re in The Family, there’s only one way out”! I gladly accepted and am proud to say I’ve been an honorary Testasecca ever since! Gonna miss him but I’ve taken comfort in the fact that as an organ donater, Wayne lives on!

“ I am grateful, from the bottom of my heart, that I have shared the life of my loved one. And I trust that someday my happiness as I remember our life together, will far outweigh the grief I feel now.
