“ Dear Sharon, Shirley and Cora: The years before Mother moved to Indiana, William, Mother and I spent a lot of time together. I loved having him over for dinner (he enjoyed a home cooked meal and desserts), and spending time with him. He and I use to watch the Red Wings and Detroit Tigers, while Mother acted like she knew what was going on. Your dad was a gentle and sensitive man and loved by our family. He loved his daughters and grandchildren with all his heart and enjoyed having his grandchildren spend the night with him on Friday nights. I will miss him - love Barbara Davis

“ Sharron, we were so sorry to hear of your Dad's passing. William was a wonderful man. Dave and I enjoyed being with him and taking him and Mom to Big Boy and Cracker Barrel. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Love, Dave and Sherry McLaughlin (Berta Mae's Daughter)
